Bread Breakers is Back!

After a brief pause last quarter due to Hurricane Helene and the holidays, we are excited to announce the return of Bread Breakers—our cherished fellowship ministry designed to bring us closer together through shared meals and meaningful conversations.

What is Bread Breakers?

Bread Breakers is more than a meal—it's an opportunity to deepen our connections within the church family. Each quarter, groups of eight(-ish!) will gather in homes to enjoy fellowship and delicious food.

How Does it Work?

We're looking for both hosts and participants to make this quarter's Bread Breakers a success.

Hosts provide the setting and the main dish.

Participants bring items like sides, desserts, or drinks to round out the meal.

Once hosts receive their group assignments, they'll coordinate with their guests to choose a date and finalize the menu within a couple weeks.

Sign Up Today!

Sign-ups for this quarter (January - March) are now open! Don't miss the chance to participate in this meaningful ministry. The deadline to sign up is January 12th, and hosts will be selected shortly after.

Adrienne has a running log of the signups from last year, but if your hosting preferences, availability, contact info, etc. has changed, please fill out a new card in the narthex.

Whether you've been a part of Bread Breakers before or are joining for the first time, we'd love to have you. Let's come together, break bread, and grow in faith and fellowship!
